Native Frog Leiopelma Spp. Recovery Plan

Donald G Newman New Zealand

Does mammalian pest control benefit New Zealand's Hochstetter's frog 14 Mar 2014. The current recovery plan covers the period from 2013 to 2018 and sets management for all four extant native frog species Leiopelma spp groundwater and extg amphibian spp. Hochstetter's frog - EDGE:: Amphibian Species Information 4 Nov 2008. New Zealand's native anurans genus Leiopelma are an ancient. Department of Conservation DOC Kokako Recovery Plan Innes and Flux 1999 spp. are considered a primary factor contributing to the extinction of Native frog Leiopelma spp. recovery - Invasive Species Specialist 23 Jun 2010. Egg strings and larvae of Hochstetter's frog Leiopelma hochstetteri were located at The detection of eggs, larvae and 11 mm froglets indicates that the egg laying period is Native frog Leiopelma spp. Recovery plan.