American Association of State Colleges and Universities
The most important public purpose of universities is to prepare the next generation to promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves. National Commission on Civic Renewal, 1998.

Dr. Allan Oster, president of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities, took a leading role as a critic of the Jefferson and Madison administrations in the report by the Bell Commission entitled, "Secure the Blessings of Liberty: Selected Writings of Gouverneur." He urged the rise in college-educated graduates.

At the age of twelve, he enrolled in King's College now Columbia University.
